

A-251

S

GERMANY

rpt September 7, 1942

GÖKÇAY, Rahim

Evidently an Azerbaijanian belonging to the 'National Union' / studied in the Polytechnic Institute of Karlsruhe; belongs to no party; now in Berlin.

List of Azerbaijanians probably prepared for Dr. SCHMIDT-DULONT
(TURKEY), sent on September 7, 1942

CID 16658-F

GERMANY

1938

GOLDENBURG

An army psychologist; in 'Knowledge of the Enemy', an article he wrote for Soldatentum in 1938, he analyzes the importance and methods of psychological espionage during the war.

Committee for National Morale, German Psychological Warfare,
New York, September 1941, p. 111

(11098)

11679

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY ? (Now in UNITED STATES)

GOLDSCHMILT, JAKOB

Rich eastern Jewish banker; sumptuous villa at Neu Babelsberg devoted to Kathe Dorsch (q.v.), and due to her connection with Goering was at one time pro-Hitler; with Goering's help, managed to get out of Germany with 4 million marks.

Sigrid Schultz, October 16, 1942, OSS, New York
(Source left Germany in Feb. 1941)

11679

One of wealthy Jews who played along with Nazis to save his skin and money; entertained Claire DUX (see U.S.) lavishly in 1932, and told source that "Hitler is the answer to the German's soul"; his connection with Mahusen bankruptcy affair.

(90)

-2-

was somewhat shady; he may have outwardly changed his point of view, but he should be carefully watched.

Sigrid Schultz, Nov. 11, 1942
OSS, New York
(Source left Germany in Feb. 1941)

11679

Is now living in U.S. in the region of New York; occasionally makes speeches cleverly explaining his constantly changing points of view.

Sigrid Schultz, Nov. 18, 1942
OSS, New York

CID 16658-F

GERMANY

1920

GOLDSCHMIDT, R..H.

In 1920 wrote a short report on aptitude testing, which was published by the Central Psychological Testing Station of the Munster district command.

Committee for National Morale, German Psychological Warfare,
New York, September 1941, p. 71

110981

January 1, 1943

GERMANY

GOLLNICK, Lt. General

His promotion from Major General to Lt. General effective January 1, 1943.

State Department Plain Cable #841, Bern, February 5, 1943

110981

BR FU-814

C

GERMANY

COILWITZER, HELMUT

11 1981

11679

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY ?

GOLTE, VON DER

Fought in Baltic countries with many White Russians under his command.

OSS, New York, Sigrid Schultz, Nov. 13, 1942
(Source left Germany in Feb. 1941)

12258

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

GOLZ, VON DER (see GOLTZ)

German general who led Germans into Finland in 1918 in order to assist the Finns against the Bolsheviks.

Albin Johnson, Osborne-Hoover, Nov. 4, 1942

FE 00180

REFERENCE CARD

GERMANY

to June 1943

GOOLMAN, GLEN H.

Address: hollenheinerstrasse 9, Berlin / American professor of English at Berlin University / wife worked in German government office before their marriage / told source that American films are exhibited to students in certain classes at Berlin University.

F/Ce/U/A, Berlin to June 1942
F.I., January 26, 1943

#N 16/4

15567

REFERENCE CARD

GERMANY

to February 1941

GÖKDELER

[Former] Mayor of Leipzig / an outstanding member of 'Deutsche Staedtetag', for details and membership of which, see ADERAUER.

OSS, New York, Sigrid Schultz, January 20, 1943
(Source left Germany in Feb. 1941)

8572

GERMANY

7-16

GÖRDLER, DR.

Came on an ill-fated mission to U.S. in 1937 on behalf of German heavy industry and financial circles and German General Staff; was accompanied by Bronisch (see U.S.).

German Political Refugees in the U.S. - p.20.
F.N. #70, Sept. 28, 1942

R

GERMANY

rpt February 27, 1943

. GORING

Stettin Postpresident / his wife summoned a meeting which was attended by Kreisfrauenschaftsleiterin Pg. WINKLER and by post office officials and their wives over 45.

Pommersche Zeitung, February 27, 1943
News Digest, March 17, 1943

(11098)

11679.

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

GÖRRING, EMMY SONNEMANN

Wife of Göring (q.v.), and one of those competing for first place in Hitler's favor; for other competitors, see Frau Robert Ley; lovely stately blonde; small talent as an actress; when Göring first took up with her in 1929-30 he was still in love with Käthe Dorsch (q.v.).

Sigrid Schultz, October 16, 1942
OSS, New York
(Source left Germany in Feb. 1941)

(98)

CD 16945

GERMANY

rpt April 5, 1943

GÖRING, EMMY SONNEMAN

Mme. Göring is residing in Lausanne in a house rented by the Italian consul.

#49-51

OSS, Bern, April 5, 1943

(11098)

R

GERMANY

August 18, 1943

GÖRING, Frau HERMANN (EMMY)

Arrived in Basle August 18; was received at the station by members of the German Consulate.

London radio

FCC, Daily Report, August 19, 1943

(11098)

F

GERMANY

rpt August 20, 1943

GORING, Frau EMMY SONNEMANN

She and Magda GOEBBELS have now taken up residence at a castle on Lake Constance; this castle is situated on the German side of the lake, but is within easy reach of Switzerland.

UP, Zurich, August 20, 1943
New York Times, August 20, 1943, p. 6

11679-212

GERMANY

rpt Februry 1941

GÖRRING

His jovial personality and his humor so dazzled Joseph LIPSKI (UNITED STATES) when the latter was Polish Ambassador to Berlin that Lipski not only became a tool of the Germans but went to great trouble to gain entree to the Polish aristocracy for Görring.

OSS, New York, Sigrid Schultz, February 11, 1943
(Source left Germany in February 1941)

(110981)

BR-12

REFERENCE CARD

to November 1941

GERMANY

GÖRRING, HERMANN WILHELM

Biographical sketch.

Current Biography, 1941

(90)

CR

rpt March 19, 1942

GERMANY

GÖRING, HERMANN

As Prime Minister of Prussia and Commander of the Luftwaffe, tried to create his own personal secret service; in 1936, the chief of this service was assassinated by HIMMLER's agents in Breslau; since that time Göring has had to leave the field of secret service to the Army and Party.

Letter from Bruno FRICKE (ARGENTINA), March 19, 1942 to Hans Peter PFEIFER (EL SALVADOR)
USNC CR 1981/42

110981

11679

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

rpt. December 22, 1942

GÖRRING

Is using dissensions of opinion as to what the new German constitution should be to increase his power as Premier of Prussia so that it extends to other states / HIMMLER is listed in 1941 Gotha, not as Chief of Secret Police in Prussia, but as being directly under Görring as Premier; this is cause of much antagonism between them and should be played up in U.S. broadcasts to Germany.

OSS, New York, Sigrid Schultz, December 22, 1942
(Source left Germany in Feb. 1941)

(90)

11679

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

GÖRLING, HERMANN

Often near bankruptcy in pre-Nazi days although he had received considerable money from his Swedish wife; his tender regard for her remains, merely a ritual put on to impress her Swedish relations; great friend of Helge Johnson and Sybilla of Coburg (see Sweden) both of whom he uses to further German ends in Swedish policy; made enormous profits when Nazis began to develop automobile industry, but careless about paying bills; after Polish occupation, bought Lombrova Coal mines for fraction of real value; Hitler questioned his right to accumulate such wealth, but he got away with it; besides seizing art treasures from Jewish countrymen, has taken wood-carved madonnas from Polish, French, and Belgian churches; great rivalry with Hibbentrop (q.v.) over management of foreign affairs, but his great problem now is feud with Nimmeler (q.v.); this stems from time when he allowed latter to take over police force so he could concentrate on Air Force; surprised when he found

(90)

-2-

Himmler would permit no interference; in spring 1940, Himmler tried to arrest some of non-Nazi members of Goering's technical staff on espionage charge, among them Ernst Udet (q.v.); terrific row ensued and Goering threatened to horsewhip Himmler if Gestapo touched one of his men; Himmler is now trying hard to discredit Goering in Hitler's eyes, blaming him for air defeat over England, and hoping to replace him as Hitler's official heir; subject is very fond of daughter and of wife, Emmy Sonnemann (q.v.) whom he has known since 1929-30; at that time he was very much in love with Kaethe Dorsch (q.v.), with whom he is still friendly; controls Prussian State Theatre; gives Opera Ball annually until it has become an orgy; fearing English air attacks has kept family in Austria until Berlin populace complained; has glandular trouble, particularly thyroid; tries vainly to curb appetite; clothes made by Steckbarth (q.v.) and banquets run by Horcher (q.v.); has talent for picking good collaborators; is an efficient administrator, and unlike most Nazi leaders, a straight thinker; knows that he has many enemies but that air force is loyal to him; has big secret service of 11679

-3-

6-17

REFERENCE CARD

GERMANY

GOERING (cont.)

his own and Pretorian Guard; has money in South America, probably with Tornquist (see South America); after conquest of France was against naming new Field Marshalls; told Hitler he wanted higher rank than others who had not emerged from Party; at Halder's (q.v.) suggestion, was made "Reich Field Marshall" while others were simply "Field Marshalls".

Sigrid Schultz - October 15, 1942
OSS, New York
(Source left Germany in Feb. 1941)

(90)

9703

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

GÖRRING

Last March (1942), on a visit to France he granted an interview to Laval who wanted to persuade him that a change of government was necessary; Görring said that at the present time the Germans would not consider the return of the prisoners or any change in the line of demarcation; he even advised Laval to wait, that the time was not ripe for him to play his cards; Laval however made him see his point of view as far as the change of government was concerned, saying that it was most imperative for him to take over if the Germans wanted improved Franco-German relations.

Rapport Politique, June 22, 1942

Belin-Lewis, July 30, 1942

(90)

CR

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

April 10, 1942

GÖERING

In a set of Miscellaneous Notes from G. E. MORISON, Zurich, Switzerland, to Ralph DEAKIN, The Foreign Editor of The Times, London, writer says that GÖering paid the enormous debts, over RM. 800,000, incurred by FUNK.

USNC PO/51713/42

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

To June 1942

"GOERING

Has tremendous energy and acuteness of mind; his motto is, "A wrong decision is better than no decision at all"; would use a Jewish invention in an airplane, declaring that "For me airplanes have no Jewish grandmothers" / seemed to feel that military and official background of his family, in contrast to humble origins of most Nazis, required him to maintain social swank; very proud of social tone of Air Force / gets work done by delegating it to men of great competence and by respecting no feelings; when he took over 4 Year Plan, absorbed almost entire machinery of Economic Ministry, leaving little to FUNK except directorship of Reichsbank; built up Air Force with aid of UDET, SPERLE, and KESSELRING; always on look-out for improvements / from early days was HITLER's closest advisor on domestic and foreign affairs; therefore bitterly and openly resented RIBBENTROP's assumption of Foreign Ministry; accused him of plunging Reich into war over Czechoslovakia, in which

(90)

-2-

to June 1942

GERMANY

GÖRRING

instance he was wrong and Ribbentrop was right; this rivalry, now subdued by war, will doubtless flare up in time; Ribbentrop is backed by HIMMLER in his opposition to GÖRRING / GÖRRING's rivalry with Himmler flared up in 1941 over the mysterious deaths of 2 important Air Force figures: Udet, and the ace flyer, Colonel Werner Moelders; Himmler doubtless arranged these deaths to arrest ^{movement of} loosely joined group of men in various ministries, centred in Air Ministry, who were preparing to be ready to take over 'if anything happened to Hitler'; this Army versus SS struggle may flare up when Nazi war machine starts to crack.

Oechsner, 'This is the Enemy', 1942, pp. 26-38

GERMANY

June 13, 1942

GÖRING

secret

In a letter dated June 13, 1942, complained to Lt. Col. VELTJENS (NETHERLANDS) that unmethodical purchases by Germans on black markets in occupied countries have created conditions which are not conducive to the orderly exploitation of those countries for the benefit of German war economy, and therefore could not longer be tolerated; Veltjens replied that these markets must be controlled from a central office in Germany which could then play these markets off against each other for the benefit of the Reich.

Netherlands Information Bureau
New York Times, May 10, 1943, p. 12

.110981

CD 503

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

GÖRRING

Looked upon with increasing suspicion by Himmler (q.v.) and Hitler; has lost security by dealing with the opposition; lost a recent argument with Himmler over an SS Air Force detachment; reported favoring an understanding with Russia to free military forces for action in West and establish an economic bloc which would avert the internal revolution and communism inevitable if Russia defeats Germany.

OSS#2139, Bern, May 18, 1942

Approved For Release 2010/12/03 : CIA-RDP82-00038R001000150034-9

HERMANN GOERING, head of the German air force.

Approved For Release 2010/12/03 : CIA-RDP82-00038R001000150034-9

CD 1381

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

GÖRRING

His retirement has not been announced, but he is living in his Franconian castle and has assumed the position of an oppositionist; is no longer running the four year plan, and its aviation production has been taken over by Thomas, its munitions production by Speer (qq.v.).

OSS#2906, Bern, June 23, 1942

CD1772

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

GÖRRING

Presumably among conservative element on General Staff favoring exploitation and organization of conquered areas rather than further large scale offensives, this attitude caused by shortage of agricultural products and machinery.

OSS#2906 Bern, June 29, 1942

0-4420

S

GERMANY

rpt late summer 1942

GÖRING, HERMANN

Source believes him to be indirectly connected with the German pro-Niemöller-State Movement, for details of which see Major EINHORN (HUNGARY).

Business friends to source of unknown reliability, Switzerland, late summer, 1942
B, Istanbul, March 7, 1943

(11098)

B 913

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

GÖRNING

Attended opera in Rome in November 1941 when a cry "Viva Germania" was greeted by an embarrassing silence; he wore beige uniform covered with medals, mink coat, gold baton, and an enormous diamond which source said he had purchased from a friend of hers for a million and a half lire.

Interview with Anne Marie Wallace del Prago
October 13, 14, 1942

CD 10054

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

GÖERING

Has been removed by Hitler from Hermann Göringwerke, which has suffered disastrous financial losses; has been replaced by SCHMUTZ (Schmuntz, Schmudt), q.v.

OSS # 8484, Bern, Nov. 20, 1942

(90)

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

GERMANY

GÖRRING

Had several relatives in Austria; also spent many holidays there as a child when his father was governor of German colony in Africa; his mother was separated from her husband and lived as hostess in old castle "Epstein von Maierndorf" owned by Jewish banker EPSTEIN; he stayed there often and hunted Chamois; has therefore a certain feeling for Austria which did not, however, prevent him from starting a fake Habsburg restoration scare in order to quash Austria's attempt to increase her influence in Poland; became intimate with Guido SCHMIDT (q.v.) at this time and used to go hunting with him.

OSS, New York, Schwarz (via Ullman), Nov. 23, 1942
(Returned to Downes' office)

(90)

7-16

REFERENCE CARD

December 28, 1942

GERMANY

GÖERING, Field Marshal

Has ordered the formation of a new air force division to be known as the Reich Marshal Hermann Goering Division in which each member will wear the marshal's name on the armband of his uniform / there was originally a regiment named for him and later a brigade, now it has become a whole division.

New York Times, December 28, 1942, p.5

REFERENCE CARD

7-16

December 28, 1942

GERMANY

GÖRNING

See von MOLTKE

(90)

IP

GERMANY

rpt January 15, 1943

GÖRING, HERMANN

May have bought a villa in Appelviken, near Stockholm, and doubtless has contacts in Sweden where he could go in an emergency /^{his} sympathy for Sweden is based on his great devotion to his first wife, Karin, whom (according to some) he followed blindly even in political matters; she had an almost mystical infatuation for Hitler, and Göring's unswerving loyalty to him is said to be due to a promise he made her on her death bed / has a stepson from Karin's first marriage, Thomas KANTZOW (SWEDEN), aged 28, who is a frequent visitor at Karinhall.

Navy Intercept, January 1943

(11098)

REFERENCE CARD

rpt January 18, 1943

GERMANY

GÖRRING, Field Marshal HERMANN

In the lean days after last war, worked as a transport pilot for Captain Carl FLOHMANN (see Sweden) / was a close friend of Eric von ROSIN (see Sweden). at whose house he met his first wife, Baroness von Folke.

OSO, Washington, Palm (oral), January 18, 1943

GERMANY

rpt March 5, 1943

GÖRRING

He, BRAUCHITSCH, von BOCK and HALDER have been negotiating secretly with the object of making him supreme military commander; these negotiations have come to nothing. / Göring circles boast that only he is capable of preventing threatened military catastrophe.

C.L. Sulzberger, March 5, 1943
New York Times, March 6, 1943

(11098)

GERMANY

rpt March 8, 1943

GÖKRING

Will probably soon issue decree confiscating all stocks of gold in Germany including gold in hands of jewelers; this has become necessary because of Germany's lack of gold to pay foreign debts and to obtain additional foreign credits.

UP, London radio, March 8, 1943
New York Times, March 9, 1943

(11098)

0-4059

GERMANY

rpt March 8, 1943

GÖRING

On excellent terms with Rudolf SCHWARTZE, SS Obergruppenführer / considerable numbers of higher Party officials and Officers give their allegiance to him rather than to HIMMLER, their hierarchic chief, and Göring is not slow to profit by this orientation of sympathies / is still Himmler's sworn enemy.

Reliability: unknown
B, Istanbul, March 8, 1943

(11098)

17297

GERMANY

rpt March 31, 1943

GÖRING, HERMANN

KÖRNER once gave him a birthday present consisting of a silver airplane which flies around the room and sprays perfume.

OSS, New York, Emmy Hado, March 31, 1943

:110981

17297

GERMANY

rpt March 31, 1943

GÖRING, HERMANN

Was often lent money by Mrs. Winifred WAGNER and never paid it back; in 1924 lived free for a year in a hotel in Venice because Mrs. Wagner gave him a recommendation to the owner / an intimate friend of the Max LORENZES (q.v.) / had an affair with Käthe DORSCH (q.v.) for years / owns a 'Jagdhütte' on the Berghof, Karinhall in the Schorfheide, castle 'Neustadt' between Bayreuth and Nürnberg, and a house on Parsifal-strasse in Bayreuth; this latter is held in the name of Helge ROSWANGE, Danish opera singer, and is lavishly supplied with household linen embroidered in blue forget-me-knots / when he called General Intendant TIETJEN and asked him to send a car for the pictures he (Göring) wanted from the Kaiser Friedrich Museum, Tietjen said he would have to send a scenery truck from the State Opera as no ordinary car could carry such a load of pictures.

red. I.P.

OSS New York (Rado); March 31, 1943

GERMANY

April 10, 1943

GÖRRING

Accompanied Hitler to his recent conference with MUSOLINI (q.v., ITALY).

AP, London, April 11, 1943
New York Times, April 12, 1943, pp. 1,6

(11098)

CD 17298

GERMANY

rpt April 12, 1943

GÖRING

Recently attempted to contact England through the Vatican, it is understood.

#175-178

OSS, Bern, April 12, 1943

110981

CD 18120

GERMANY

rpt April 24, 1943

GÖRING

He and RIBBENTROP do not possess the complete confidence of FÖRMANN, HITLER, and GOEBBELS, but the latter three are still closely bound together.

(Unconfirmed)

#12

OSS, Washington - Cairo, April 24, 1943

110981

R

GERMANY

rpt May 14, 1943

~~GÖ~~RING

His private biographer, CRITSBACH, recently put out a pamphlet in which he sought to prove that all of Germany's victories are linked with the name of the Reichsmarshal / strenuous efforts are being made by some Germany officers to spread the theory that the reverses of the Hitlerite Army commenced with the virtual removal of G~~ö~~ring from military leadership / informed quarters say that 'The mounting G~~ö~~ring-led opposition in the Hitlerite party does not come out openly against Hitler, but aims only at the physical extermination of Himmler, Goebbels, and others hiding behind the screen of Hitler's name.'

Moscow radio, May 14, 1943

FCC, Daily Report, May 14, 1943

(11098)